

WEEKLY WASH-UP

Live

Grow

Flourish

Hi all, how are you settling into college and uni life? Hands up if you're missing your animals back at home!

If you've tried to book an appointment for next week – you will have seen I am already fully booked. Never fear – you can email me at hello@vickydawes.com.au to arrange a zoom appointment for next week. However, if you'd prefer an in-person appointment, get in contact – we may be able to arrange an additional session in college.
